Frankie the Lion thrills pupils with orange hugs

PUPILS at Grafton Primary School in Dagenham welcomed Saint Francis Hospice's mascot Frankie the lion for a 'Go Orange' non-uniform day last Wednesday.

Participants paid a £1 to dress up in their own clothes for the school's annual fundraiser for the hospice, with some going 'orange' as a tribute to Frankie.

Layla White, marketing assistant at the hospice, played Frankie for the day. She said the mascot was enthusiastically welcomed, claiming: "Frankie received enough hugs and high fives to keep him happy for a very long time." Mike Nicholson, head-teacher at Grafton Primary, said the school wanted to take an extra step in showing their support for Saint Francis Hospice.

"Usually we raise money for the school fund but this year we decided it would be nice for us to donate the money to a local charity, as part of the curriculum here we nominate local and national charities to support and Saint Francis Hospice is one of those."

Other events included a tea and coffee morning and a shoe and bag sale, with leftover items donated to the Saint Francis Shop in Upminster. A Spanish food tasting session was held in the afternoon to coincide with parents' evening.

HAPPINESS: Pupils are overjoyed to meet the hospice's mascot.

MEALS TEAM SCOOP GONG

SUCCESS: Barking and Dagenham Council's catering service team celebrate.

By Rudi Abdallah

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

BARKING and Dagenham Council's catering service team won a top award last Monday in recognition for getting more school children to eat healthy meals.

EDUCatering Awards 2016 acknowledged the success of themed events run by the service such as 'Day of the Dragon', which involved every primary school in Barking and Dagenham.

The menu included options like 'Roasted Dinner' and a 'Nest of Dragons Eggs'.

The school with the highest increase in healthy school meal uptake received a flying visit from a 'real' dragon and took part in a live Cantonese cooking experience.

Cllr Evelyn Carpenter, cabinet member for educational attainment and school improvement, said: "Encouraging our children to choose healthy options in fun and innovative ways like these themed days is really important to ensure good health for the future."

"This impressive award reflects the hard work that staff across the Council are doing to make the health of children across the Borough a priority."

"I would like to congratulate all of the staff involved, and thank them for their continued commitment to finding original ways to promote healthier meals."

See Christie's sleuths Tommy and Tuppence

SETTLE back into the darkness and revel in a gripping thriller at Queen's Theatre, Hornchurch, this autumn.

Agatha Christie's Partners in Crime will take to the stage from Friday, October 28, to Saturday, November 19, and we have FIVE pairs of tickets to give away.

Partners in Crime is presented by the Queen's Theatre and Eleanor Lloyd Productions, in association with The Watermill Theatre, and stars Christie's much-loved detective duo, Tommy and Tuppence.

Set in 1920s London, our 20-something heroes, are home from the war, flat-broke and unemployed.

Embarking on a daring business scheme - The Young Adventurers Limited - they are willing to go anywhere and do anything. But their first assignment plunges them into more danger than they ever imagined and they are sucked into a world of political intrigue, conspiracy and murder.

Partners in Crime is an inventive adaptation by Sarah Punshon and Johann Hari of Christie's The Secret Adversary, originally produced by The Watermill Theatre in February 2015.

Loyal, pragmatic Tommy (played by Richard Holt) is the perfect foil for pretty, plucky Tuppence (Naomi Sheldon), a whirlwind of infectious exuberance.

The Queen's Theatre's unmissable autumn finale is shot through with fast-paced action, cracking comedy, music, a dash of romance and marvellous magic tricks. For further information and tickets, which cost from £12.50 to £29, call the box office on 01708 443333 or visit www.queens-theatre.co.uk.

To win one of four pairs of tickets to see Partners in Crime at 7.30pm on Tuesday, November 15, answer the following question.

Q: In which decade is Partners in Crime set?

A: 1910s

B: 1920s

C: 1930s

To enter the competition telephone your answer - A, B or C - to 0901 307 1664 with your name, address, telephone number and email. Alternatively text YACRIME (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge. Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, text EXIT at the end of your message.

Lines close on Thursday, November 3. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged. Service Provider: UK Limited, RH16 3EG. Tel: 020 7720 7130.

Roadshow highlights hate crime

WALTHAM Forest Council's community safety team held a roadshow in Walthamstow Town Square and The Mall to educate people about what hate crime is and how they can report it.

Cllr Liaquat Ali MBE, cabinet member for community safety and cohesion, said: "Our borough is one of the most diverse areas of the country in one of the most diverse cities on earth. Residents from all walks of life, cultures and countries call Waltham Forest home, and the council's overarching vision is to ensure this is a place where everyone can enjoy a quality life."

A hate crime information video supported by police was also displayed at the roadshow.

Housing providers and faith groups were given information packs on how to deal with hate crime in a bid by the council to reach as many people across the borough as possible.

Cllr Ali added: "Hatred has no place here. Our community utterly condemns it and will always work together so that no one feels victimised, scared or alone."

Hate crimes can be reported to police by phoning 101 or 999 in an emergency.

For more information about organisations supporting victims of hate crime visit the council's website at www.walthamforest.gov.uk.

Karate kids bid for glory

TWO GOLD-winning karate fighters from Barking and Dagenham are training at the borough's leisure centre for the Karate World Championships 2016 in Linz, Austria.

Katie Hurry and Natalie Williams, two of the highest ranked female karate fighters in the UK, recently returned from tournaments in Poland and the Midlands where they each won gold.

Cllr Maureen Worby, cabinet member for social care and health integration said: "It is great that our facilities are helping both women in their bid to win Gold at the World Championships and I hope that their story inspires others."

The pair are training alongside Greg Francis, a 'highly-experienced' international karate coach, at Becontree Health Leisure Centre.

Both athletes stand a good chance of being selected for Team GB 2020 in Tokyo if they medal at the world championships.

For more information about your local karate clubs or to become a member of Becontree Health Leisure Centre please contact a councillor at matthew.spriggs@lbdbd.gov.uk.

College students learn green skills from Tommy Walsh

CELEBRITY gardener Tommy Walsh helped students at Barking and Dagenham College landscape a garden last Thursday in a bid to help develop a body of skills. Walsh helped students by scrutinising each of their designs for a new garden before helping them form a final plan.

He said: "It's very interesting and exciting to be here today, to see the designs that the students have created. I hope that, once it is completed, the garden will be looked after and enjoyed by the students at Barking & Dagenham College for many years to come."

NEWS IN BRIEF

● A MAN was hospitalised on Friday after an 'unknown substance' was thrown in his face in an 'unprovoked attack' in Woodford Green.

The 53-year-old man was injured on Waltham Road at around 8.50pm on October 21. He was released from hospital after being treated.

● A 50-YEAR-OLD man needed hospital treatment after an assault in Barking.

Police continue to appeal for information after an altercation reportedly took place close to Fiske Court on King Edwards Road at around 5.40pm on Tuesday, October 18.

The victim was sprayed with an unknown substance which left him needing hospital care.

Police at Barking & Dagenham and Woodford urged witnesses who saw either assault to come forward.

They can ring 101. Alternatively, they can call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Young learn how litter affects their environment

PUPILS at Parsonage Farm Primary School in Rainham went on a litter walk to see the effects of rubbish on their local area.

Children from Year 4 spotted items of litter and explained how they thought it affects the environment.

Toby Sheppard, group leader of Year 4, said: "We are undertaking the litter walk in order to learn how litter can affect our local environment."

Ways to reduce litter and people responsible for collecting rubbish were discussed.

SPECIAL EFFECT: Grace Nicholson took 30 minutes to apply her make-up

Gore blimey! That's one in the eye for Halloween

A STUDENT at Technical Skills Academy in Barking has created make-up which resembles a "spookily realistic" gouged eye effect.

Grace Nicholson, 18, who studies theatrical make-up media, made the formula using ingredients such as colour correctors, bruise-wheels and wax.

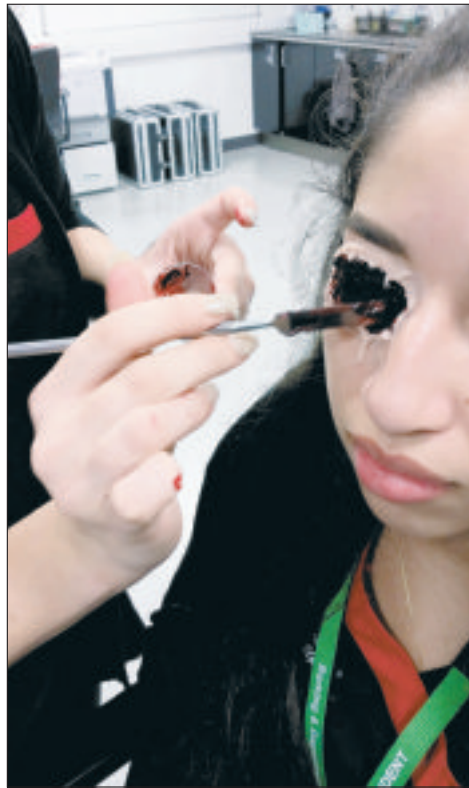

She took 30 minutes to apply the make-up in stages to model Andrea Lozano-Robles.

Lee Demmel, curriculum manager for hair and beauty, explained how the course enables Grace to develop a realistic formula.

He said: "Students who are studying theatrical media make-up at the Technical Skills Academy are taught the versatile techniques which Grace has used.

"They can then use them for a wide variety of different looks such as old age, third degree burns, imploding and exploding bullet holes and bruising."

For more about courses at the Technical Skills Academy Barking go to <http://www.barkingdagenhamcollege.ac.uk>.

O's team up with NHS trust urging smokers to give ciggies red card

LEYTON Orient FC and North East London Foundation Trust's (NELFT) stop smoking team joined forces to encourage people to quit cigarettes.

The trust's team set up a stall behind the West Stand at the Matchroom Stadium alongside their Stoptober mascot on Saturday, October 15.

The team spoke to fans across the ground with several smokers signing up to the challenge.

Stephen Ashelford, smoking adviser for NELFT, said: "It was a busy day for the stop smoking team at the Leyton Orient game, with around 5,500 supporters attending."

"We had quite a few sign ups for the Stoptober challenge and handed out lots of leaflets, clappers for the younger fans and other promotional material. Orient is a community club and it was really positive to play such a key role in a project that is benefiting the whole community."

Stoptober is a month-long challenge calling on smokers to give up for October and then for good.

MESSAGE: The campaign banner, and right, Leyton Orient's Theo and NELFT's Stoptober mascots at the Matchroom Stadium

ADVICE: Dr Mayank Shah, clinical director for cancer at Waltham Forest Clinical Commissioning Group

Women miss life-saving cervical screen tests

MORE than 30 per cent of women in Waltham Forest have failed to attend cervical screening appointments.

Now NHS bosses have launched a survey in a bid to increase participation.

Dr Mayank Shah, GP and clinical director for cancer at Waltham Forest Clinical Commissioning Group, thanked those who have filled out the survey, but he urged more women to respond so obstacles can be eliminated.

He said: "Thank you to everyone who has already completed the survey. We are particularly now looking to hear from women in Leyton, Leytonstone and Chingford. Improving screening coverage and awareness of the programme is vital in reducing the number of deaths from cervical cancer."

"Screening remains one of the best ways to spot cervical cancer early, and prevent it from developing. We want to find out why women are not taking the opportunity to have what can be life-saving screening, and do what we can to reduce the barriers."

Waltham Forest Clinical Commissioning Group says 37 per cent of women failed to attend their appointments.

The group wants to hear from women willing to take part in a closed discussion with clinical leads for cancer services to find out what can be done to encourage more local women to go for the test.

Residents have until Monday, October 31 to offer their views.

To take part visit https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/investigating\_low\_cervical\_screening\_uptake.

Learn how to repair old gadgets and save money

RESIDENTS are being urged to attend a workshop showing them how to repair their old appliances.

Recycle for London and The Restart Project are joining forces to help people "save money and reduce waste" by making use of unused items.

Ali Moore, campaign manager for Recycle for London, said: "We all get frustrated when the items we love using stop working."

"The Restart workshops provide a great way for local residents to bring electrical items back to life for free, and will also help reduce waste in London. We want to give people the skills and confidence they need to repair their electrical items in the future, saving them money and helping protect the environment."

The workshop aims to address the fact that few people attempt to repair electrical appliances, leading to salvageable items ending up in landfill.

Latest data shows that 52 per cent of people do not repair old items because they will not be as cost effective and 24 per cent said it was because it was an old model.

The event is on Saturday, October 29 at the Priory Court Community Centre, Walthamstow.

People should bring their items and any cables with them.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Offers are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that all descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and that the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit Advertising Regulations 1989.
2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or services of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', 'D' etc. in the advertisement.
4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers in the Advertiser.

5. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
6. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
7. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they think fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
8. Whatsoever effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion, typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for reproduction or alterations.
9. All gross advertising rates (except classified, fringe and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertiser to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
10. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
11. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the advertiser shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
12. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
13. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
14. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
15. Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to keep a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole order in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that have been allowed will be retained. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the Civil Court Act 1984.
16. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
17. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
18. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the customers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
19. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
20. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belongs to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, claim stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box number and postal address are charged on part of the advertisement, i.e. box fee, cards address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit reference agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing checks.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Capital Media Newspapers Ltd or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

LATE STRIKE STEALS IT FOR WEST HAM

Football

West Ham United 1
Sunderland 0

Brian Jeeves reporting from the London Stadium

A GOAL in the third minute of stoppage time from Winston Reid earned West Ham their second successive Premier League victory after lowly Sunderland had frustrated them for long periods in a poor encounter.

Manuel Lanzini's winner against Crystal Palace seven days previous had lifted the Hammers out of the drop zone, and despite missing the influential Aaron Cresswell, who was serving a one-match suspension after a harsh dismissal at Selhurst Park, this was clearly viewed by the home fans as an opportunity to record back-to-back victories for the first time this season.

Sunderland arrived in east London without a win from any of their eight Premier League games to date.

The Black Cats had picked up just two points from games with Southampton and West Bromwich Albion and had found the net only six times, with former Hammers frontman, Jermain Defoe, responsible for four of them.

It was the home side who made the better start, with Simone Zaza's goalbound header deflected behind after Michail Antonio had picked him out following a sweeping move down the right.

Soon after, Dimitri Payet was a whisker away with a curling effort that had Sunderland goalkeeper Jordan Pickford relieved as it drifted the wrong side of an upright.

West Ham were playing with a little more of the swagger synonymous with much of last season's campaign.

Pickford thwarted the marauding Payet with an unorthodox stop, while Edimilson Fernandes' low drive was scrambled away. Then another Zaza effort was blocked as the home side continued to turn the screw.

Meanwhile, Payet struck the foot of a post as Sunderland hung on.

The visitors offered very little in the way of a goal threat.

Eventually, Jack Rodwell headed over, while Defoe struck meekly at Adrian as Sunderland finally emerged from their defensive shell.

Patrick van Aanholt's attempt was wayward as Sunderland showed a little more adventure.

But they were almost undone on the stroke of half-time when Zaza's spectacular bicycle kick went agonisingly wide.

West Ham had Adrian to thank immediately after the restart. The Spanish keeper raced from his goal to parry Wahbi Khazri's effort after the Tunisian had found himself clear on goal.

The incident, coupled with West Ham's inability to break down a resolute Sunderland rearguard, had now whipped up a nervy atmosphere among the home support. Defoe looked to darken the mood, but Reid was through a pack of Sunderland defenders and beyond the unsighted Pickford.

As a result, West Ham move up to 15th in the Premier League table.

West Ham boss Slaven Bilic was clearly content with his side. Speaking after the match, he said: "It was very dramatic, and a very important game for both teams."

"We had enough opportunities, not only to be one-up, but two-up. Second half it was an open game. In the last 15 minutes we pushed more, we changed the system. We added another striker, but without losing the shape."

Beleaguered Sunderland chief David Moyes said: "I thought after the opening seven minutes there would only be one outcome and West Ham would win it."

"We found it very difficult dealing with Payet and Lanzini for the opening 30 minutes."

"I didn't think we played that well in the first half, but by the end of it, I thought we had got back into it."

"I thought we had done all right in the second half. We made some chances, played a bit better. We didn't deserve the outcome in the end."

West Ham now turn their attention to the EFL Cup, facing London rivals Chelsea at the London Stadium in a fourth round tie on Wednesday, October 26 (7.45pm). They return to Premier League action on Sunday, October 30, when they face Everton at Goodison Park (1.30pm).

West Ham United: Adrian, Winston Reid, Cheikhou Kouyate, Manuel Lanzini (Ashley Fletcher 84'), Simone Zaza (Jonathan Calleri 69'), Pedro Obiang, Mark Noble (Capt), Angelo Ogbonna, Dimitri Payet, Michail Antonio (Sofiane Feghouli 62'), Edimilson Fernandes. Subs not used: Raphael Spiegel (GK), Havard Nordtveit, James Collins, Reece Oxford.

Sunderland: Jordan Pickford, Patrick van Aanholt, Jack Rodwell, Wahbi Khazri (Billy Jones 86'), Duncan Watmore (Lynden Gooch 75'), John O'Shea (Capt), Didier N'Dong, Jermain Defoe, Steven Pienaar (Paddy McNair 79'), Javier Manquillo, Lamine Kone. Subs not used: Mika Dominguez (GK), Papy Djilobodji, Victor Anichebe, George Honeyman.

Concord's supersonic high five over Margate

By Brian Jeeves

CONCORD Rangers continued their climb away from the foot of the National League South table with an emphatic 5-1 away victory over Margate.

Steve Cawley grabbed an impressive hat-trick, while Jordan Chiedozie and Audrius Laucys also got in on the act as the Beach Boys recorded their biggest victory of the season.

Concord are now third from bottom, and within touching distance of Weston-super-Mare, who are just two points better off, outside the drop zone.

East Thurrock United remain in eighth after a 1-1 draw with Ebbsfleet United at Rookery Hill. Stuart Lewis gave the visitors an early lead, but former Southend United man, Kane Ferdinand, levelled the score for the Rocks before half-time.

There was an incredible game at the Melbourne Stadium, where Chelmsford City stretched their unbeaten sequence to ten games after the Clarets fought back from 3-0 down to earn a point against Hemel Hempstead Town.

Matt Saunders (2) and James Potton fired the visitors into a seemingly unassailable lead, but a Shaun Jeffers' double, with one from the penalty spot, and an own goal levelled the score.

City thought they had all three points when Shamir Mullings put them ahead with a little over 12 minutes left. But Hemel grabbed a point with Jordan Parkes' stoppage time penalty.

Promotion chasing Dagenham & Redbridge were denied three priceless National League points after Chris Holroyd grabbed a last-minute equaliser for Macclesfield Town at Victoria Road. Earlier, Fejiri Okenabirhie gave the Daggers the lead. The east Londoners remain second in the table, four points behind leaders Forest Green Rovers.

However, Braintree Town's difficult campaign continued. The Iron remain entrenched in the relegation zone after crashing to a 6-1 defeat at Dover. Sam Matthews had given Braintree a 12th minute lead at the Crabble Stadium.

In the Ryman League Premier Division, Ricky Sappleton was Billericay Town's goalscorer in a 1-1 draw at Merstham.

But it was another disappointing afternoon for bottom of the table Grays Athletic, who went down 2-1 at Mill Field to Leatherhead; Nathan Campbell with the Grays goal shortly before the break. And it was even worse for Canvey Island, who continue to slide down the table, losing 5-1 to Enfield Town at Park Lane. George Sykes gave the Gulls an early lead. The hosts' misery was compounded by the dismissal of Tayshan Hayden-Smith. Aaron Condon hit a hat-trick as Brightlingsea Regent hit back to win their Ryman League Division One North clash with Thamesmead Town 4-3. Jake Turner was also on target for the north Essex outfit. Evergreen striker Neil Richmond bagged both goals as Tilbury were 2-1 winners at Norwich United, while a first half goal from Jordan Peart was enough for Aveley to take the points at Bowers & Pitsea.

AFC Hornchurch comfortably saw off Great Wakering Rovers 3-0 at Bridge Avenue. Ross Wall (2) and Leon McKenzie found the net for the hosts against a Rovers side starting life without manager, Gary Ansell, who resigned his post late last week. Meanwhile, Nathan Koranteng (penalty) and Tim Monsheju were on target as Witham Town beat Romford 2-0. Waltham Abbey had Darelle Russell (2) and Billy Holland to thank as they beat struggling Wroxham.

Thurrock and Maldon & Tiptree battled out a tense goalless draw at Ship Lane, while Haringey Borough picked up a point in a 1-1 result at Cheshunt thanks to Dean Fenton's goal.

But it was a bad day for Brentwood Town, who slipped to a 2-0 defeat at Ware, and Heybridge Swifts, who crashed to a 4-1 home defeat at the hands of Soham Town Rangers, this after Jack Barham had fired Swifts into a first half lead.

Basildon United made FA Vase progress, seeing off Crawley Green by the odd goal in three in their first round proper tie.

But Ilford went down 3-2 at St Margaretsbury, Gorleston were 2-0 winners over Barking and Waltham Forest went out, losing 2-1 to Rothwell Corinthians.

In the Essex Senior League, FC Romania thrashed Hullbridge Sports 6-0 at Lower Road. Southend Manor beat Enfield 1893 2-0 at Southchurch Park Arena, while West Essex won by the same score at Sawbridge worth Town. Stansted picked up maximum points on their travels, beating Takeley by a single goal at Station Road.

In the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League Premier Division, Ramblers won 3-1 at Harold Hill. Dave Collins scored the only goal as Catholic United ended Basildon Town's one hundred percent Division One record. Old Chelmsfordians had their shooting boots on, beating Newham United 8-1.

In Division Two, Upminster were 4-2 winners over Rochford Town, and Shobury Town produced the eye-catching result of the day in Division Three, thumping Leytonstone 8-0.
